Important advice: At the time of shipping the vehicle, please request the shipping company to allow maximum free time for the container. Normal free time is only 5 days after arrival. Generally shipping companies do consider extending the free time to 10/14/21/30 days.

Please check each and every detail on the BL prior to vessel arrival at Indian port. Lately, heavy penalties & fines are being levied by customs for amendments carried out after the shipment arrives and the import manifest has been filed with customs authorities.
