

EXCLUSIVE PREVIEW OF
THE 3rd CARTIER 'TRAVEL WITH STYLE' CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE ON
26th NOVEMBER AT BHAU DAJI LAD MUSEUM, MUMBAI

Mumbai, 26th November, 2012:

An exclusive automotive preview of the 3rd edition of Cartier 'Travel with Style' Concours d'Elégance was held yesterday at the recently renovated architectural wonder Bhau Daji Lad Museum in Mumbai. The globally renowned Concours will showcase a collection of rare and beautiful Indian vintage automobiles. After two spectacular editions in 2008 and 2011, the magnificent journey of the Cartier 'Travel with Style' continues with the eagerly anticipated 3rd Concours d'Elégance arriving in Mumbai in February, 2013.

The preview of the event was attended by Mr. Louis Ferla, Regional Director of Cartier, Middle East, India & Africa, Manvendra Singh of Barwani – India's most respected and experienced vintage car expert and curator of the Cartier Concours and Mr. Mark Shand - consultant for Cartier Concours d'Elégance. The exhibit was held over High Tea at the museum gardens and a conference area inside the museum.

On display at the museum entrance were four extraordinary automobiles lent for the occasion by renowned collectors Mr. Vivek Goenka (CMD, the Indian Express Group), Mr. Yash Ruia and Mr. Rony Vesuna.

An exciting new addition to the 2013 Concours d'Elégance will be the introduction of motorcycles. These will be presented in three categories: 'Pre-War Classics', 'Post-War Classics' and 'Racing Motorcycles' - showcasing some of the best-preserved motorcycles in the country for the first time. Representing this new category at the preview, were rare vintage motorcycles belonging to Mr. Mandar Phadke, Mr. Dnyanesh Samant and Mr. Jacob Varghese.

Addressing the media on the occasion, Mr. Louis Ferla said: "The relationship between Cartier and India dates back over 100 years, when the royal families of the time commissioned jewellery and watches from Cartier. Cartier 'Travel with Style' is our very special endeavour to celebrate the remarkable design and craftsmanship of India's automobile heritage which brings forth the most luxurious and distinctive of cars."

Ferla further added that "the 2008 Cartier Concours d'Elégance was a big moment in the history of Indian motoring, gaining widespread recognition both in India and internationally. It was a true eye opener to the nation's rich heritage and heralded the beginning of the classic car movement in India. New Delhi 2011 was another major milestone in our unique association with India's rich automotive heritage and we are now looking forward to taking this association a step further in 2013, when the Cartier Concours d'Elégance will return to Mumbai at The Taj Lands End in February. We are very excited to return to this great city where it all started"

Manvendra Singh of Barwani, Curator of the Concours, said: "For each edition we try to raise the bar higher with the introduction of exciting new categories and this year we will be showcasing rare, vintage motorcycles for the first time. Another unique addition to the Concours automobile category will be the 'Edwardian Class'. These cars are from the turn of the 20th century to 1919. Some of the earliest cars were specially ordered by the Maharajas as they graduated from horse carriages. He added that “The Cartier Concours d’Elégance has generated great excitement among Indian collectors. More and more owners are now taking interest in maintaining and restoring their cars to the high standards required for such international events. The aim this time around is to once again highlight the automobile heritage of this astonishing country in a larger and improved format.”

Mr. Mark Shand said “we are now ranked alongside some of the most famous International Concours such as Pebble Beach and Villa d’Este, exhibiting over 60 of the rarest and best preserved vintage automobiles from across India. The Cartier ‘Travel With Style’ celebrates the remarkable design and craftsmanship of these cars and the total Indian essence, which I think makes it more interesting and different from other Concours. I can assure you it will get better and better each year”
