Documentation

- ∅ The drivers must have a valid Driver's License
- ∅ Ensure vehicle documents (RC, Insurance, PUC etc.) are valid and in order. Please carry a copy of the same.
- ∅ All participants have to sign an indemnity form. Bangalore Offroaders is responsible for facilitating the event only.

Bangalore Off roaders cannot be held responsible for any accidents or such other incidents which can occur during the course of 2 days. Participants are solely responsible for their safety and should ensure the safety of the people in their vehicle.

A Must from every Participant

- ∅ Every participating vehicle must be a 4x4 vehicle. No 2 wheel drive vehicles is allowed after meeting point.
- ∅ Ensure no slippage of gears and also ensure that the 4WD is in perfect working condition. (Without needing much manpower to engage / disengage the same).
- ∅ Please service your vehicle and check for all loose nuts and bolts (especially at the towing points).
- ∅ Please carry/wear the ID tag all through the event dates as this is basis for issue of memorabilia, food coupon and other items.
- ∅ For vehicles having freewheeling hubs, get the same checked and serviced and keep tools to repair if there are any issues.
- ∅ Ensure battery is charged (especially the ones having winches) and electrical systems are in order.

- ∅ Do not litter the trail of any waste including plastics, chocolate wrappers, etc.
- ∅ If you are a smoker, things to observe and practice on the trail – put off the match and cigarette stubs. We do not cause fire in the forest.

Essential Things to carry:

- ∅ Every participating vehicle must have its own basic recovery kit, viz., Tow rope, D- Shackle, tow hook on the vehicle. Hi Lift jack desirable.
- ∅ Gloves (to handle tow rope and such) and dampening cloth or sheet.
- ∅ Spare wheel jack, tools and spares, lubricants and radiator/ break hose pipes.
- ∅ 20 Litres of Petrol as we will be about 10 Kms from the nearest fuel station.
- ∅ Water for the radiator / washing hands etc.
- ∅ Kindly note the camp site is outdoor in the wilderness and facilities provided will be very basic. Hot water in showers will NOT be available. You will have to make your own arrangements for such needs. Kindly check with any of the Marshals for specific facilities.
- ∅ Short Eats.
- ∅ LED torches or lights which can be used during the nights for walking around and repairing vehicles.
- ∅ Personal First Aid Kit, Toiletry, Medicines (for those on routine medication).
- ∅ Warm clothes & gear like sweater, jackets, shawls and blankets.
- ∅ All are required to wear full trousers and shoes. Strictly no chappals and sandals during the OTR Course.
- ∅ Garbage bags (at least 3 per vehicle).

Optional Items to carry

- ∅ Fully charged mobile, Camera, batteries (there will be few charging point in the camp).
- ∅ Sunscreen.
- ∅ Shades.
- ∅ Please carry your personal choice of Alcohol (to be consumed only AFTER the OTR).
- ∅ Cigarettes (cigarette butts must be doused fully before you dispose off. Else you may cause wild fire endangering lives and plants)

What is expected of the participants.

- ∅ Even if there is the slightest doubt regarding the performance of your vehicle, please DO NOT BRING THE SAME. We will not be in a position to waste time rectifying any pre-existing problem.

- ∅ Please check and ensure the requisite fuel is available in your respective vehicles at the end of each day, and ensure it is tanked up the previous day. We do not want to waste time the next day morning.
- ∅ Pitching of private tenting is strictly prohibited. Organizers will be providing basic amenities only. All participants are requested to co-operate and maintain order.
- ∅ Please maintain a convoy.
- ∅ Do not overtake within the convoy.
- ∅ Do not stop un-necessarily unless there is a real need on the highway. Once a vehicle stops (ex. cigarette break) then all the vehicles tend to stop, causing confusion and delay.
- ∅ Support and volunteering to help around.
- ∅ Disciplined and well humored behavior.
- ∅ Observation and attentiveness.
- ∅ Presence of mind.
- ∅ Follow the instructions by the team leads & marshals, who will be named.
- ∅ Strictly NO consumption of alcohol during the OTR. If any participant is found consuming alcoholic drink while on the Off-roading trail, the organizers will not hesitate to ban such participant from the event and from future events too.
- ∅ Strictly prohibits carrying / consuming/ indulging in any kind of banned stuff such as drugs, fire arms, sharp objects which can cause injury.
- ∅ Stick with the team assigned and do not waste time.
- ∅ Carry all essentials listed above without fail.
- ∅ Do not get into any kind of skirmish with the locals (should there be any). If the participant does not know the local language, please seek the help of someone who knows the same.
- ∅ Carry whatever garbage generated back home and dispose it off. Do not dispose the garbage / garbage bags at the OTR sport / camp site.
- ∅ Once the camp sets in and people are having a good time (especially those who are drinking), please do not attempt any night drives.
