Now a days government service is available only by qualifying competitive examination but in fact it syllabus is not covered in academic education. Many private organizations have open training Centre for competitive exam by levying huge fees. We have started free coaching training Centre for SC / ST students in which one of the blind student Miss Usha Pundge selected in the Bank of Baroda as a probational officer.

We all are aware of that Tansa, Vaitarana and Bhatsa dam supply water to our Mumbai metropolitan city but it is very pitiable that nearby villagers could not get even drinking water. they were fighting with the government since independence but all these agitations were futile, government always gives budgetary problem. Our institute approached Bombay Municipal Corporation to have a permission to lift water from the tank and simultaneously requested Tata Trust to assist the project. The same project is completed within a very nominal budget which was inaugurated by Tribal Welfare Minister Mr. Vishnu Savara. Our womenfolk were happily crying in the inaugural session in the year 2017.
