AND AT
HOLLAND PARK HALL, W.11.

THIS book contains the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and telegraphic addresses of Austin Dealers and Distributors, covering the whole of the United Kingdom.

Each address is an "Austin Service Station," equipped with a stock of spare parts and provided with plant which will enable the Dealer to deal rapidly and efficiently with any call upon his services.

When an Austin Owner goes to an Austin Dealer his book of Standard Repair Charges tells him at once what expenses he will incur.

In case of the unexpected—accident or breakdown—the Austin Owner has but to ring or wire to the nearest Austin Service Station to command ready and willing service.

If the necessity should arise at some unfrequented part of the road the help of the A.A. or R.A.C. scout will be readily given and a telephoned message sent from the nearest box.

The names of our Distributors and one hundred per cent. Austin Dealers are printed in bold type.

BE PREPARED FOR ANY EMERGENCY.

CARRY THIS BOOK IN THE CAR.

INTRODUCTION

The Austin Publication 1388 (1936) and 1388a (1937) provides a useful list of Dealers and Service Agents in the UK but is listed in order of Town and City not region. In trying to trace our car it became apparent that those people that have this Publication will be searching for Dealers in a region, and those without the publication would be starting from limited information.

So, the list in the publications have been resorted into Country then Number Plate Issuing Authority as they were in 1936 and 1937 along with the registration for letters for the authority. The list of Main Agents and Service Dealers from overseas is from The Austin Magazine 1936.

When I have merged the 1936 and 1937 list together I have applied the following rules

1. If the address has more information between the two publication I have added this to one dealer entry.
2. If the dealers name changes or has been expanded I have left both entries in the list.
3. If the dealers location changes I have left both entries in the list.
4. There is an extra column showing the year they appear in the publication.

There is also a list of Dealers Badges normally displayed on the dashboard with photos and transcript, if you have one that is not listed a photo would be greatly appreciated to expand the list.

I have some more information on the Dealers and Service Agents listed and will add a historical section later. If you have any additional information to share it would be greatly appreciated. Or if you have a different year copy of Publication 1388.

Section 2 Austin Publication 1388 (1936) and 1388a (1937) merged

Section 3 Austin Main Agents and Service Depots Overseas (1936)

Many thanks to everyone who has provided information and images.

Many thanks
